The duties of the Anti-Ragging Squad include but is not limited to-

- Adhering to a duty roster as prepared by the head of the Anti-Ragging Squad;
- Remaining vigilant and agile at all times and also provide necessary details so that the members are easily reachable even by freshers and other students;
- Making surprise checks in the hostels, boarding areas, playgrounds and transport facilities and other areas even at odd hours for which the Anti-Ragging Squad shall be duly empowered;
- Making discreet enquiries regarding compliance and adherence of these regulations by seniors;
- Conducting anonymous surveys that may be random, to identify possibly unreported incidents of ragging as designed by the University;
- Checking freshers for any injuries or indirect evidences of possible ragging such as inability to stay awake during the day indicating possible ragging throughout the night or inability to sleep due to fear of ragging;
- Informing the authorities concerned to rectify vulnerable areas such as dark stretches due to fused bulbs, etc.;
- Making on the spot and other necessary enquiries on incidents of ragging and report to the Anti-Ragging Committee;
- Reporting all cases of ragging to the Head of the Institution and other functionaries, as may be required;
- Making entries regarding timings and details of checking including remarks or findings, if any, in a register.

The above constituted Anti-Ragging Squad will be headed by Dr. Naresh Pal Singh, Professor, Community Medicine. He will take necessary steps for discharge of the duties of Anti-Ragging Squad as per National Medical Commission (Prevention and Prohibition of Ragging in Medical Colleges and Institutions) Regulations, 2021.
